

Newsletter Dezember 2012

We would like to thank all customers, suppliers and partners for their confidence in us and the good cooperation. A Merry Christmas and all the best, lots of happiness, good health, lots of personal and professional success in the New Year!

We want to take the opportunity of this season greetings to inform you, that Ernst Grube decided to go into well-deserved retirement on 1th of January 2013.

Since 2008 he was a very competent contact person for our customers thanks to his long experience in electrical engineering.

We give our most cordial thanks to him for his engaged work for ROTEK and wish him all the best, especially health to spend his free time with traveling and on vintage automobile events.

Andreas Müller takes over his tasks for the immediate future.

Company holidays from 20th of December 2012 to 7th of January 2013.
